Burlington is to have a big honor roll in city hall park, on which will be inscribed the names of 1,100 Burlington men and women who have been in service in the world war. To raise money for this purpose a tag day is to be held on April 26. The honor roll is to be a sort of a three-tablet affair of large di mensions and will cost about $1,500 when finally in place in the park.

Word has been received by Mrs. May Johnson of Rutland of the death of her son, Private Harley T. Johnson, from wounds received in action, his decease ecurring in France March 15, 1919. Private Johnson was born in Plymouth 23 years ago and went to Rutland to live at the age of four years. He at-tended the Vail Agricultural school at Lyndon and two years ago went to New Haven, Conn., to work in the ammunition shops. A year ago he enlisted and before leaving for France last August he was married to Mrs. Delia Galluhue of New Haven.
